

You are here: ITL / Get Involved! / Teaching@Sydney

TEACHING @ SYDNEY

February 2013

Get your students off to a head start

Help your students to get off to a head start by recommending our Learning Centre courses and programs. These programs include:

Week 0 - Our popular series of orientation lectures, for example:

- Essay writing
- 'So Many Books, so little time ...'

Semester program - March 11th to April 19th. Enrolment online from March 4th

- A great selection of workshops from writing a critical review to discussion skills
- Useful for beginning students, whether they studying at undergraduate or masters level

Honours program - March 13th to 15th. Enrolment online from March 4th

- Workshops focus on writing issues and managing the Honours year

Faculty Program

- Discipline specific academic skills for targeted groups of students. Contact the Learning Centre to find out about these programs.

Elearning Program

- Write reports in Science and Engineering (WRiSE)
- Clearer Writing

For more information and resources to support your students click here.
