Don't miss out! Applications for the Graduate Certificate are closing

Are you thinking of doing the Graduate Certificate in Educational Studies (Higher Education) in 2015?

If so, then you need to start your application to the Faculty of Education and Social Work now. Applications close on the last working day of November.

The Graduate Certificate in Educational Studies (Higher Education) is a postgraduate award course offered through the Faculty of Education and Social Work and taught by the Institute for Teaching and Learning. It is an advanced program of study building on candidates' university teaching experience.

The course is primarily designed to introduce university teachers to current principles, practices, debates and research in higher education. Candidates are encouraged to develop scholarly, research-led approaches to teaching while engaging in activities and tasks aimed at cultivating critical reflection about higher education.

All intending participants in the program must be currently engaged in university teaching. Course fees for the Graduate Certificate are waived by the University for University of Sydney staff, provided staff have permanent residency/citizenship status.

To begin your application, click here. If you would like to discuss the course's suitability for your needs then please contact the coordinator Dr Graham Hendry or phone 9351 4820.