OLT grant opportunity and resources

The second round of the 2015 OLT grant applications is now open. This round which closes internally at 5pm Thursday 4 June 2015, is only for seed grants and full proposals from successful Round 1 EOIs. Applications for full proposals which have not been through the EOI process will not be accepted for this round.

The 2015 Priority areas are:

- Academic standards
- Assessing equivalence of qualifications and learning outcomes
- Assessment and promotion of student learning (on selected topics)
- Curriculum design (on selected topics)
- Employability skills
- Improving institutional pathways across higher education
- Improving access to and outcomes in higher education for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- The contemporary PhD.

If you are interested in making an application for a Seed grant you should check the information and register for the workshop:

Making an application for an OLT grant
Friday 13 March, 12.30-2.30pm

Register here

This workshop will focus on Seed Proposals. A workshop for those who have submitted successful EOIs will be notified to the successful applicants as soon as the results are known.

Office of Learning and Teaching grants and other projects produce resources which are useful for the sector. Recent projects are featured on the front page of the website. You may like to check regularly to see what's new.

Currently the following are featured:
Supporting academic integrity
• Learning and Teaching Academic Standards Statement for Agriculture
• Transforming Exams: Processes and platform for e-Exams in supervised BYOD environments
• Augmented Reality: application in Higher Education
• Good Practice Report: Postgraduate Research and Coursework Degrees

All projects can be accessed from the Resources section of the website. If you want to find useful information about a range of topics about University Teaching and Higher Education in Australia, see the OLT website.